

Subject: Silver Lake Water Irrigation Ban Lifted

As of June 28, 2016 the restrictions on use of Silver Lake water for irrigating plants is lifted.

As new restrictions occurring from future aquatic invasive plant treatments, riparian owners will be notified by posting of a notice on their dock or other waterside structure if posting cannot be attached to the dock. Such notice will show the date of treatment.